Book suggestion for March

As was mentioned on February 20, Easter is only eight weeks away. Hard to believe! With that fact in mind, we need to turn our attention in that direction.

Our focus, especially at this time of year, is that Jesus died for the sins of humanity—the problem we all have—and provided the solution through salvation—the greatest gift we could receive. Those of us who are Jesus followers have understood this wonderful news—the gospel—the Good News—and accepted this free gift of salvation through Jesus. His death, burial and resurrection are to be celebrated and embraced with great joy and gratefulness. Now our task is to share that truth with others who need the same solution and gift that will restore them to God.

This is where “Everyone Has One” comes in. Each and every one of us knows at least ONE person who is far from God. What will we do? Our desire for this Easter season is that we all would find our ONE—then pray for that individual, invest some time into their life, and then invite them to church—hopefully for Easter Sunday.

This week be praying for your ONE—then grab a card from the table and add it to the back. Then start obeying God as He gives you opportunities to invest and ultimately invite the to church.

Praying we all willingly PRAY. INVEST. INVITE. REPEAT. May God be exalted and glorified in the months ahead.

Our highlighted missionaries for the month of March is Bryan Schoeffler of Christian Camping Services.

Bryan Schoeffler of “Christian Camping Services” located in Bath, New York, writes, “I thank God for every chance He provides for me to serve a church.” Bryan continues to provide activities and events for church teen programs and Sunday morning service pulpit supply when a pastor is away or when they are between pastors. He is thankful that in the month of February he was able to do some of each.

Bryan especially appreciates prayer for his upcoming events. His winter retreat season is very full with some churches returning after a winter off due to COVID related issues. May is full and June is filling quickly. Pray for these events and for spiritual openness and participant’s growth as a result of the messages, safety, and protection from sickness, and weather-related issues. Also pray for Bryan that he would have continued health and energy as he plans for and leads each event.

Thanking God that He continues to use His body of believers to supply the financial needs of his ministry. Bryan is looking forward to sending news of many blessings to share with us in his next newsletter.
