Book suggestion for April

Celebrating the Resurrection. This is a focus for this month of April. We eagerly anticipate the upcoming Easter Sunday, when we will gather to rejoice that Jesus Is Risen...He Is Risen Indeed!

Truthfully, this is meant to be a regular focus for us as followers of Jesus. Each day we are reminded of our sinfulness and how we fall short of what God has for us. As we have been learning through this study of the Sermon on the Mount, we often do not live as those who are a part of God's Kingdom. We have failed to obey Jesus' "own description of what he wanted his followers to be and to do."

But along with the reminder of our failure, we are reminded of the hope that we also enjoy. We are not stuck in this mire of failure, but rather, as Jesus was raised from the dead after suffering for sin on our behalf, we too shall be raised to a new life through faith and trust in the finished work of Jesus. So each day we are reminded of the victory we have through Jesus! And through the power of His Spirit, we are able to live each day as those who understand the full depth of meaning in the teaching that Jesus shared on that mountainside.

Let's choose to live in such a way that shows others our daily celebration of the resurrection of Jesus and His once for all sacrifice that gives us a new and abundant life.

"You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body."—1 Corinthians 6:19b-20

COME JOIN US!

Each Sunday we have an opportunity to stay connected in worship by attending our Sunday service to enjoy to a shared message and study through scripture. Join us as we enjoy our worship and messages with Pastor Scott Burtis. We continue our sermon series with the Sermon on the Mount for the month of April after a short break during the Easter season.

I encourage you, if you are able, to join us in our sanctuary on Sunday mornings at 9:45 am and at 11:15 am for our in-person Sunday School. Our adult Sunday School continues with a discussion of that morning's sermon in a small group setting. We are also live streaming on YouTube. Check our website at www.ambccandor.com for more details.

Please be sure to contact us if you need anything!

Missionaries Highlighted for April:

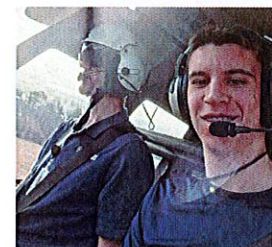

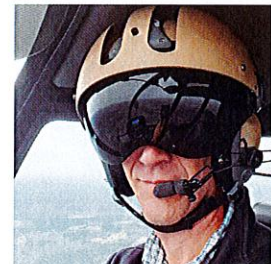

Christopher and Darlene Clark

Christopher PASSED HIS EXAM, which means he is a licensed commercial helicopter pilot in addition to being a fixed wing pilot! Join us in praising God for the 110 hours of helicopter training in Christopher's log book, the financial provision for the training, four JAARS pilots who oversaw the training, a fair and generous FAA examiner, suitable weather, and safety during the enjoyable check ride experience, and God's favor in this whole process. The Clark's are sporting big smiles and have been reunited as a whole family, praise God. They have since returned to JAARS for more helicopter training after a big road trip.

We are now back our home base in Waxhaw, North Carolina, for advanced helicopter training, which includes confined landing spaces, advanced emergency training and practice, sling loads, mountain operations and building operational flights. Christopher, his instructor Jeff Johnson, and Hannah Clark took the helicopter to Longview, TX, for a missions conference.

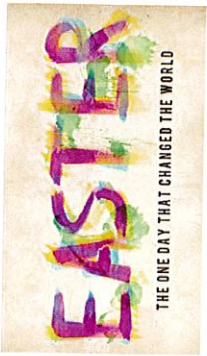

Nehemiah and Christopher enjoyed a flight, just the two of them together.

The Clarks appreciation all your prayers.
